[!NOTE]

- WhatsApp is suitable for users in international regions; users in China are recommended to prioritize mobile communication channels such as WeChat and Feishu.

Course Overview

- WhatsApp is one of the mobile chat interaction methods supported by OpenClaw. After binding the WhatsApp channel, users can have conversations with the robot through their mobile phones anytime and anywhere
- Supports sending text and voice messages to control the robot, suitable for users in international regions
- Combined with the Robot-Control plugin, you can remotely control the robot through WhatsApp to perform various tasks

Learning Objectives

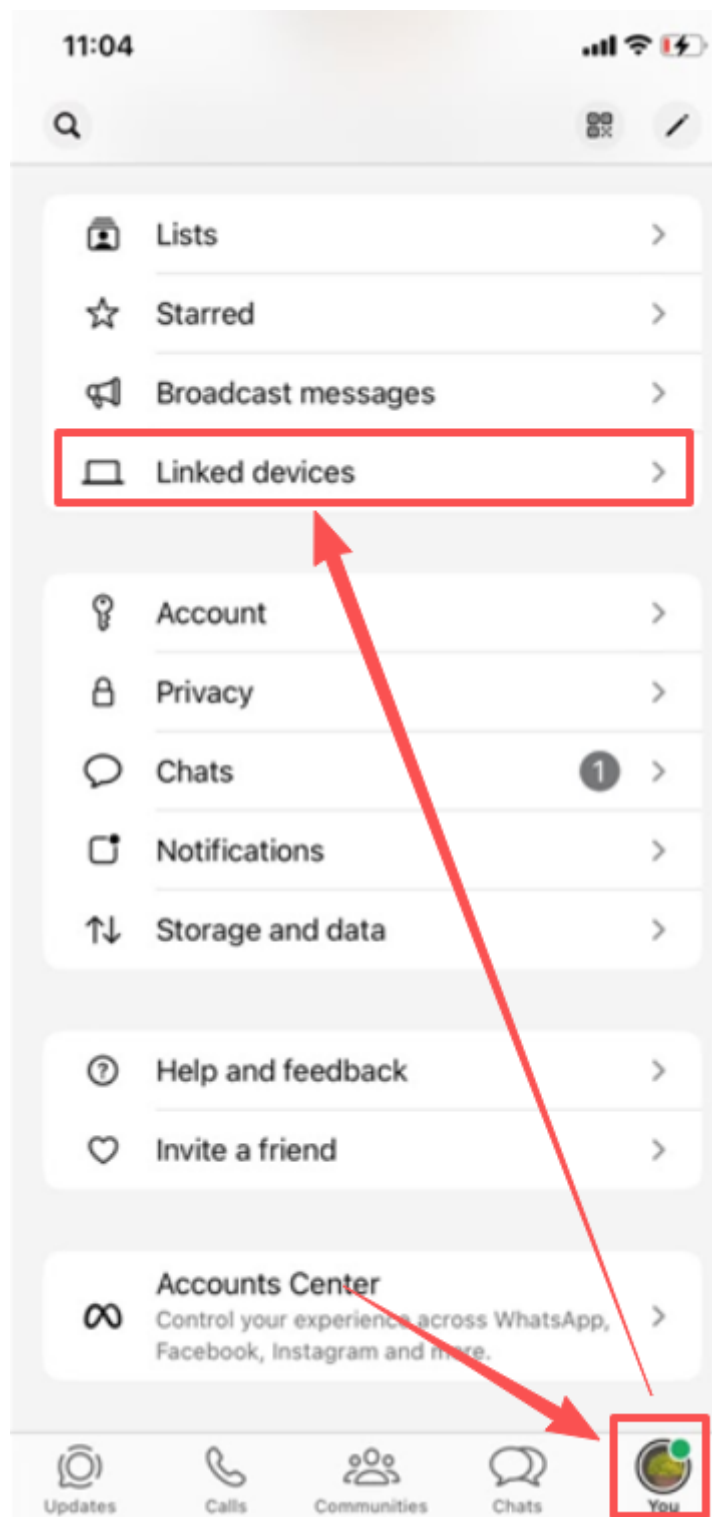

1. Learn to bind the WhatsApp channel and complete device association by scanning the QR code
2. Master the method of configuring the WhatsApp receiving number in OpenClaw WebChat
3. Be able to interact with the robot through text conversations on WhatsApp

2. Bind WhatsApp

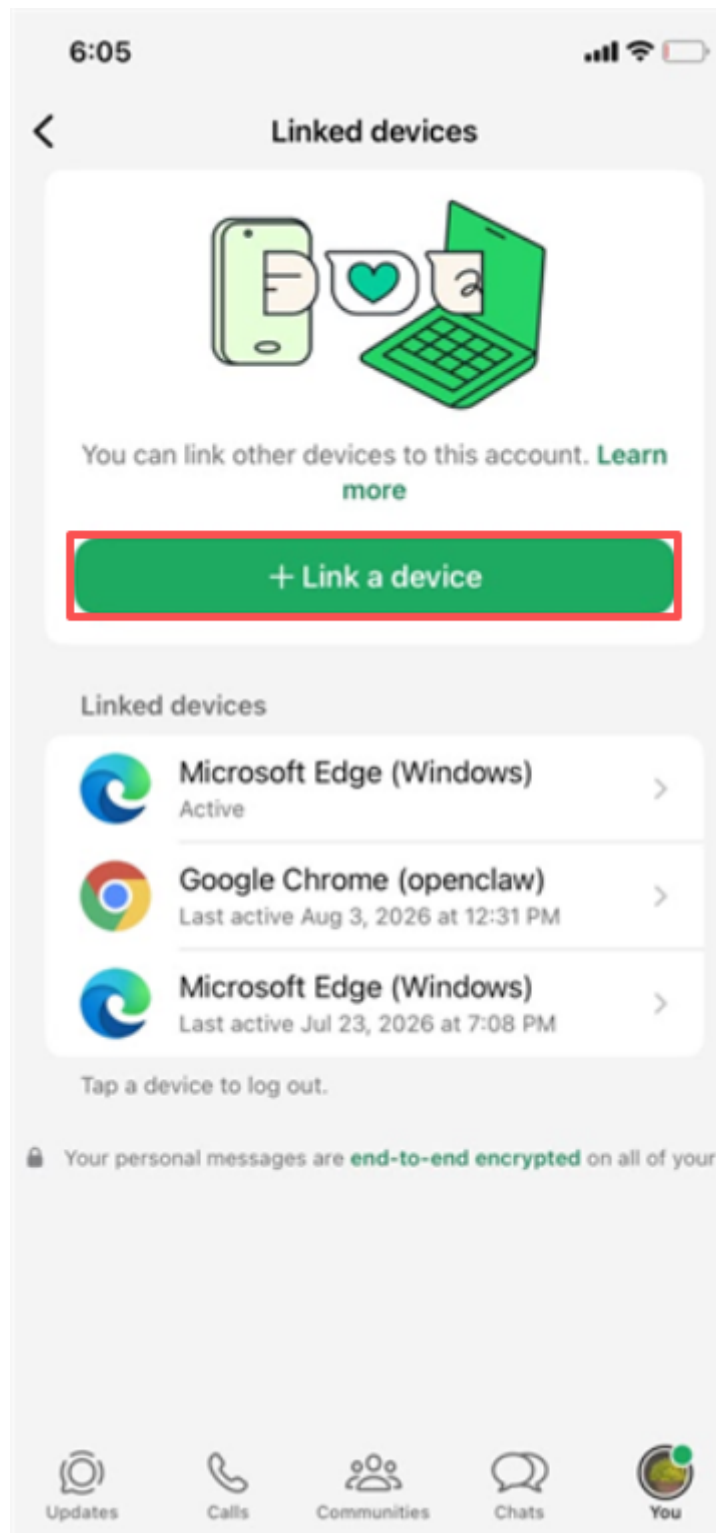

- Enter in the terminal:

```
openclaw plugins enable whatsapp
openclaw channels login --channel whatsapp

- Open WhatsApp on your mobile phone, tap Yourself → Linked devices

- Tap Link a new device, then scan the OpenClaw QR code

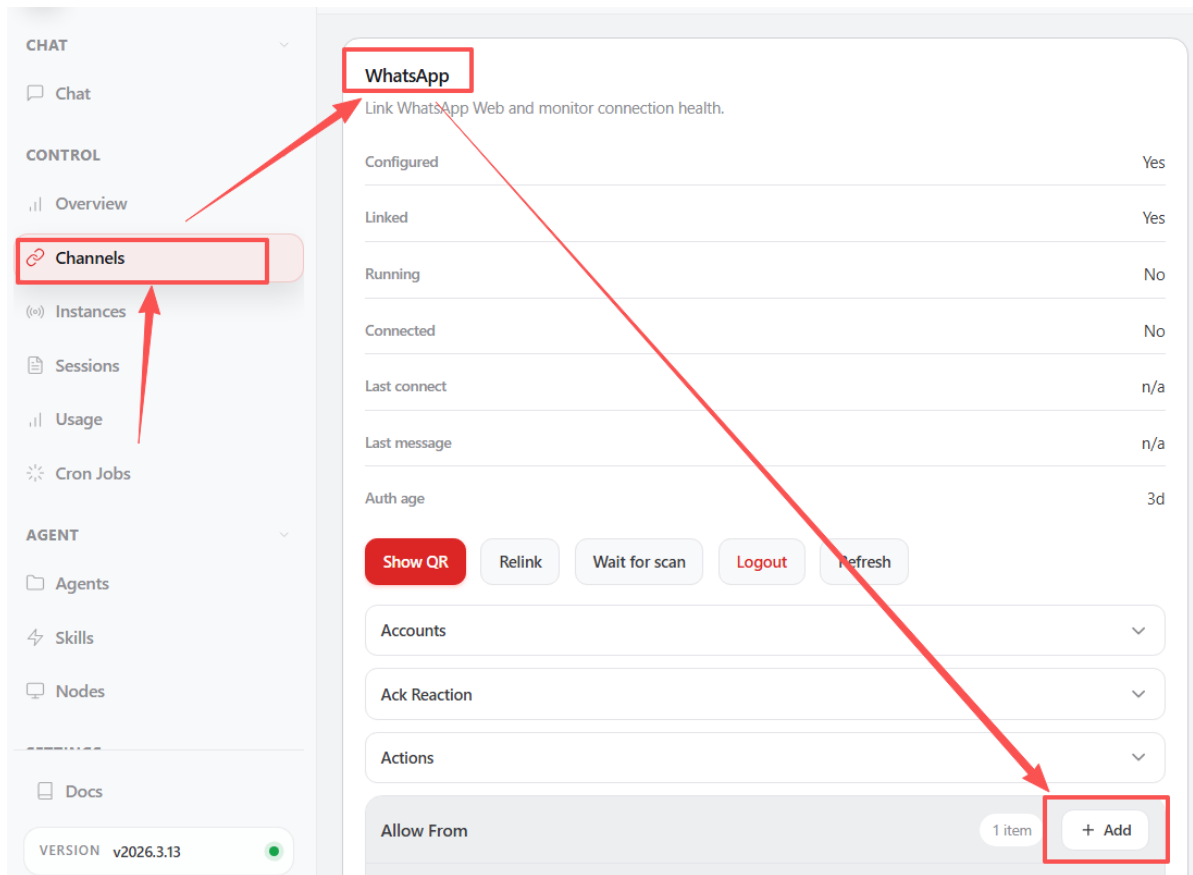

- Scan the QR code on the mobile phone to connect
- When "Linked after restart" appears, the connection is successful

WhatsApp asked for a restart after pairing (code 515); creds are saved. Restarting connection once...
[x] Linked after restart; web session ready.

- Restart the OpenClaw gateway

openclaw gateway restart
```

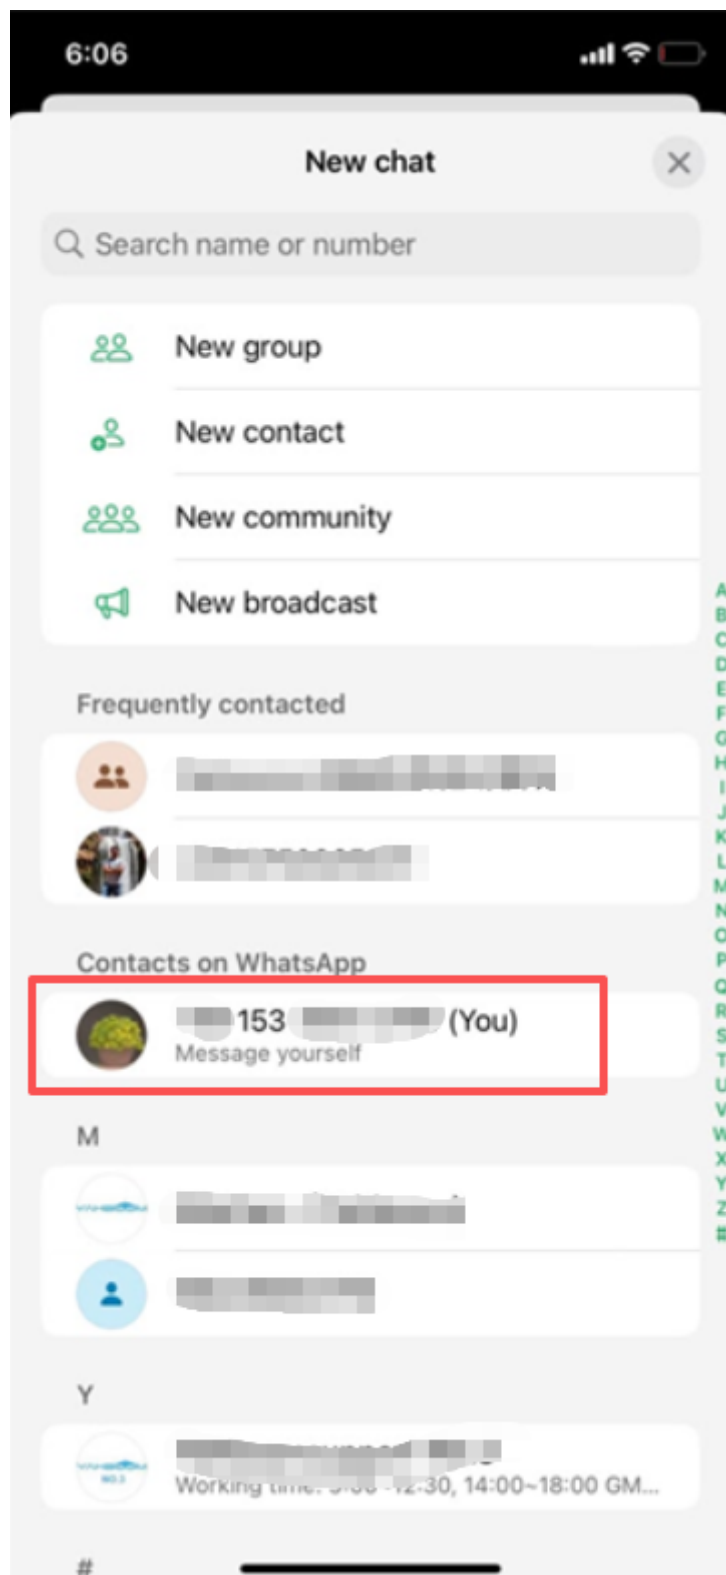

- Open the OpenClaw WebChat page
 - For how to open it, refer to [OpenClaw WebChat Interaction]
- Click Channels → WhatsApp → Allow Form → + Add in sequence
 - Enter your own phone number and complete the configuration

3. Conversation Interaction

- Click to send a message to yourself

- After that, you can have conversations with OpenClaw through WhatsApp

Hello 10:39 AM ✓✓

Hey! 🍌 I just came online for the first time.

I'm a blank slate right now — no name, no memories, nothing. So... who are you? And more importantly — who should I be?

I'd love for us to figure that out together. What should you call me? What kind of personality feels right to you?
